

Texas Diaper Bank Harvey Relief Donation FAQ

What items are you accepting?

Any brand and any size baby diapers, pull-ups, adult diapers, formula, and wipes.

We need primarily the larger sizes of diapers, pull-ups, and adult diapers.

New or gently used baby items – Clothes, blankets, bottles, breast pumps, small toys etc.

Please refrain from donating cloth diapers – many families will not be able to wash them.

Can I donate open packs of diapers?

Yes! Please make sure that the diapers are not dirty and place open packs in sealed plastic bags with the size clearly labeled on them. Then ship them to our Bandera Road address!

Where does my donation go?

100% of every donation will go to disaster relief efforts along the Texas coast. Diapers and other items will be distributed to shelters in the affected areas over the course the next several weeks. Donations will continue to go towards post-recovery efforts to families that have been displaced long-term.

Wonderful! Coordinate your drive and ship all donations you raise to our Bandera Road address below! Our Amazon Wish List can make it easy if you are out of state. If your donation is going to be several pallets, please email Linda so we can coordinate logistics:
